Dear Rosalind,
We have been married for five years now and although we love each other very much, my wife has completely lost interest in me. What can I do about it?

Dear Bill,
Completely lost interest? Try bringing Tom Cruise home and see if she still has no enthusiasm. Bill, you may not be able to look like Tom but you can sure start acting like him.

Dear Rosalind,
My mother-in-law treats me like dirt. What can I do to improve our relationship?

Dear Tom,
Behind every successful man stands a surprised mother-in-law; surprise her.

Dear Rosalind,
I had been dating Penny for about two weeks when I invited her back for coffee. She seemed quite keen until we got back to my pad. All of a sudden she gulped her coffee down and wanted to be taken home. I know I didn't rush her, what do you think went wrong?

Dear Stephen,
Give your pad a good spring cleaning before you bring the next girl home.

Dear Rosalind,
I am slim, only about 10 kilos above my ideal weight, yet seem to attract many obese women. Unfortunately I don't like obesity all that much, yet nevertheless these women seem to be quite affectionate, often more so than those who are as thin as a reed. Is there anything in the personality of obese women that would attract them to me, or would make them more affectionate than more slender women?

Dear James,
Wasn't it Ogden Nash who said, "So I think it is very nice for ladies to be lithe and lissome, But not so much that you cut yourself if you happen to embrace or kissome?" Why question it? If you've got what it takes, sit back and enjoy it.

Dear Rosalind,
My boyfriend has not been paying me enough attention lately. I have just revamped my wardrobe and spent a fortune on make-up - to no avail. How can I get him to take notice of me?

Dear Susan,
An absence, the decline of a dinner invitation or a slight coldness, can accomplish more than all the glamour in the world.

Dear Rosalind,
I have met the girl of my dreams whom I would really like to marry, there is only one thing stopping me, I have a sneaking suspicion that she isn't a virgin. This really worries me - what should I do about it?

Dear Buddy,
Men always want to be a woman's first love, women like to be a man's last romance. How would you feel if she rejected your proposal?

Dear Rosalind,
My boyfriend is hopeless at punctuality and is quite lazy. How can I get him to toe the line?

Dear Pam,
The hardest task in a girl's life is to prove to a man that his intentions are serious.
